

Position # 4

Joel

I think that Parent and the School should get together and work together. Because we spend a lot of time in school and the parents is struggling to ~~to~~ give us an education buy us things and the school should help out with giving us an education.